

Illinois Brokers Pre-License Home Study Course

Now available through home study, get your Illinois Brokers License !!!
The perfect alternative for professionals with busy schedules and can't find time for class.

REQUIREMENTS: To successfully meet the education requirement to obtain an IL Brokers Real Estate License, one must obtain 120 hours of instruction from approved courses. Credit hours that meet the IL Brokers education requirement shall be given to students who successfully complete the following: 45 credit hours for the IL Salesperson Basic Real Estate Transactions course, and 75 credit hours of IL approved Broker courses.

TAKING THE COURSE: There are five (5) modules each worth 15 hours of credit meeting the 75-hour IL Brokers Pre-license requirement

- Step 1: Read and study the assigned chapters for each course module
- Step 2: Call the Association Office to arrange a time for proctored exam
- Step 3: Once all course modules have been completed and exams passed by 75%, a completion certificate will be issued

The Quad City Area REALTOR® Association offers the following IL Brokers approved home study course modules leading to an IL Brokers Real Estate License. You have six (6) months to complete all modules from purchase date.

Advanced Principles 2000
15 credit hours - (Includes book and materials) 113.0000540 ..... $ 150

Brokerage Administration
15 credit hours - (Includes book and materials) 113.0000545 ..... $ 150

Contracts and Conveyances
15 credit hours - (Includes book and materials) 113.0000541 ..... $ 150

Appraisal
15 credit hours - (Includes book and materials) 113.0000658 ..... $ 150

Finance
15 credit hours - (Includes book and materials) 113.0000659 ..... $ 150

**Discounted price for all modules purchased at same time ..... $ 650
(SAVE $ 100 through this purchase option)

To get started,
please call the Quad City Area REALTOR® Association's Education Department at (563) 355-6655